

CallPlease saves entertainment executive assistant hours of valuable time

FIND THE RIGHT TECHNOLOGY TO ORGANIZE AND AUTOMATE THE CALL BACK PROCESS

Organizing and keeping on top of call logs for busy executives is no easy task. Aside from old school pink message slips and post-its, most digital tools used to track call messages are not cloud-based, which makes these tools difficult to customize and keep current. They don't enable real-time collaboration or offer global capabilities, especially among teams that need to be in sync around the clock.

CALLPLEASE ENDS CALL MANAGEMENT CHAOS

After an extensive Internet search, this executive assistant called on CallPlease. "CallPlease was the virtual service I was looking for. It's instantaneous and automated. Now when I log an incoming call, everyone on the team can see it in real-time. People are always traveling out of the country, so a mobile friendly, device-agnostic solution like CallPlease is perfect."

CHALLENGE:

Manage a high volume of calls and messages more efficiently than traditional non cloud-based tools typically used in entertainment.

SOLUTION:

Deploy cloud-based CallPlease, built specifically to track, sync and manage calls, messages, call logs and phone sheets.

CALLPLEASE BENEFITS:

- Increase productivity by 40%
- Instant, real-time, collaboration across all platforms and team members
- Easy-to-use, easy-to-learn for less tech savvy users
- Affordable pricing
- Interface automates call logs and makes prioritizing call backs simple
- Make better, more focused calls
